If you elect not to have withholding apply, you are still liable for payment of federal income tax on your distribution(s). You may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. In addition, you may incur penalties under estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. Withholding is merely a method of paying taxes that you owe; therefore, it does not change your total tax liability. This section will remain in effect until RBC CM receives written notification to exchange the method of withholding.
